

Well Test Interpretation

Eastern testing Services provides state of the art well test interpretation and pre job advisory services emphasizing the need for a controlled downhole environment and high-performance gauges, both of which have made well testing a powerful reservoir description tool.

Testing techniques are covered for covered for the following:

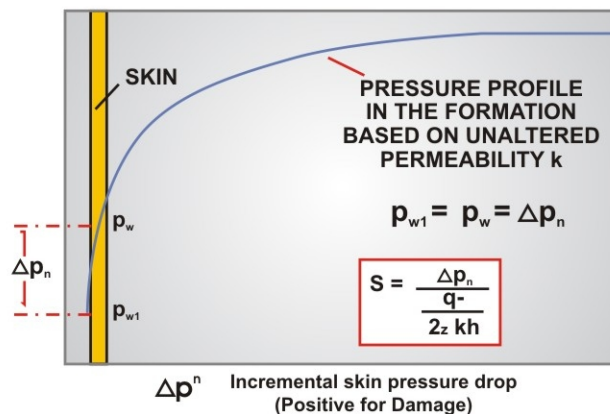

- Layered reservoirs and horizontal wells
- Low-energy wells sucker-rod pumping wells
- Multiple wells
- Vertical interference
- Testing combined with perforation

Total Aparent Skin from the intercept of a Horner Plot

Skin Factor Concept

Due to van Everdingen and Hurs:

S . . . Dimensionless Skin Factor